

2011 MISS NURSERY CAPITAL PAGEANTS~A FUNDRAISER JUDGES

PHIL FRAZER A native Nebraskan, Phil has resided in Nashville, Tennessee for the past 15 years. He is employed as a Human Resources Consultant and works with many of the larger companies in the Middle Tennessee area.

Phil currently serves as the State Director for the Mrs, Miss, and Teen Tennessee International Pageants. He has judged local, preliminary, and national pageants throughout the United States. Locally, he has served as an Interview Coach to numerous contestants in a variety of pageant systems.

Phil is a volunteer with the Nashville Humane Association where he assists with the socialization of animals in an effort to get them adopted into permanent homes. His hobbies include collecting autographs and classic country music.

CYDNEY MILLER held the titles of Mrs. Tennessee International 2010 and Mrs. Tennessee America 2008. Her life mission and pageant platform is to serve the cancer community and to promote the message that early detection and prevention are two of our most powerful weapons in the battle against cancer. She has continued the work she started through pageantry by traveling and speaking to organizations about the importance of this message and the power of choice in the battle against cancer. She created the website, www.theroadtothecure.com, to share her personal journey and invite others to share theirs. She supports the Susan G. Komen Foundation, American Cancer Society, St. Jude and many other organizations that promote research and programs that serve cancer patients and their families.

Cydney is the Assistant Human Resources Director for the Clarksville Montgomery County School System and was recently selected to serve on the National SHRM Board's Staffing Management Specialty Expertise Panel. Cydney has a MBA from Bethel University and holds her SPHR Certification. In addition to her cancer awareness and advocacy work, Cydney is a graduate of the Leadership Clarksville Class of 2010, 100% Graduation is Clarksville's Business Campaign and the Clarksville Young Professionals Community Service Committee.

BOB JONES attended Western Kentucky University where he received his BS with an Area of Concentration in Business Management and Organizational Communications.

Bob has been an active pageant sponsor for numerous years. Most recently he has been associated with several of the Miss Tennessee preliminaries including Miss Capitol City, Miss Music City and Miss Pioneer. A certified Miss America judge, Bob has judged in numerous pageants on the local, regional, state and national levels. Within the last twelve months Bob has judged pageants in Alabama, Mississippi, Arkansas, Kentucky and Tennessee. Recently he was one of the preliminary judges who crowned Anna Tadlock, Miss Mississippi who will represent Mississippi in Las Vegas in January 2010. Working primarily as an interview coach, Bob has worked with numerous titleholders across the continental United States as well as Hawaii.

Bob is the Kentucky/Ohio Regional Sales Director for AAA-The Auto Club Group in Michigan. Bob was recently given the key to the City of Bardwell, KY for his work there during the Ice Storm of 2009. When Bob is not working, he divides his time between Nashville, TN and his lake home on Nolin Lake in Kentucky.

SHANNON IVIE resides in Mt. Juliet, TN with her husband of nine years and their two children, London and Dane. Shannon has a broad range of pageantry experience having judged, coordinated, competed, and as the mother to a daughter who competes. Most recently, in 2009, Shannon was the swimsuit fitness award winner, audience choice winner, and finalist in the Mrs. Tennessee America pageant. Shannon's daughter has won several titles; she was Junior Miss Tennessee International 2010 and is the reigning Tennessee State Our Little Miss.

Shannon is a strong believer in giving back to the communities in which we live. She served on the board for the Crohn's and Colitis Foundation of America from 2005-2010. She also gives her time participating in events and supporting Susan G. Komen, Habitat for Humanity, the American Heart Association and the Parent-Teacher Association of Wilson County.

Shannon is employed by U.S. Trust, Bank of America Private Wealth Management as a Vice President and Regional Business Manager supporting Michigan, Illinois and Tennessee. In her spare time, Shannon enjoys sewing, playing tennis, and camping with her family.